

Moses removed his shoes before the burning bush of the Almighty. (Ex 3:5) Nelson Mandela said, "there is no easy walk to freedom". Then he walked to freedom. It took three decades. Ask the students to write their 'route to freedom' on the stepping feet.

This could also be used for Jesus Journey to Jerusalem in preparation for Holy Week. (Year 10 Journey Stories). This can also be used as preparation for any commitment that the students will make. i.e. Preparations for sacraments, or preparation for a social justice project, preparations for leadership roles.
